WASHINGTON, March 1.—[By the Associated Press.] Senate.—After routine business the Senate went into executive session.

When the doors were reopened the Postoffice Appropriation Bill was reported and placed on the calendar.

A conference was ordered on the Naval Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Teller asked unanimous consent to take up the McGarrhan bill, and it was discussed until the expiration of the morning hour, but the bill lost the right-of-way by a vote of 26 to 24.

The Hudson River Bridge Bill was then taken up, but the Postoffice Appropriation Bill was immediately brought forward.

The first amendment which provided discussion was one striking out the item of $198,000 for facilities on the trunk lines. Pending the discussion a conference was ordered on the Agricultural Appropriation Bill.

The discussion was again interrupted in order to have the conference report on the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill acted upon.

Mr. Allison asked unanimous consent to present the report, but objection was made by Mr. Hiseock. It was, however, read, and then Mr. Allison asked unanimous consent to proceed with its consideration.

This gave Mr. Hiseock another opportunity for objecting, and he availed himself of it. This forced Mr. Allison to move the report be now considered. The motion was agreed to, and this had the effect of depriving the Hudson River Bridge Bill of its right-of-way.

Mr. Allison made a statement of the report, and stated in relation to the Sherman bond amendment that he would (in order to test the sense of the Senate upon it) move to recede from it.

Mr. Sherman explained and advocated the amendment. He depressed in his statement the knowledge that no man in the United States better fitted to hold the office of Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. Sherman's speech was replied to by Messrs. Stewart, Wolcott, Teller and Gorman. A vote was taken, and the Senate (without division) rejected the amendment.

The Sherman bill was then taken up. The conference report was agreed to and a further conference ordered on several amendments which were not finally disposed of.

Business in the Senate was then suspended, and, after paying a flag tribute to the late Senator John G. Gibson of Louisiana, the Senate adjourned.

On the demand for a second to Mr. Hatch's motion the opponents of the measure as a rule declined to vote, and it was more than half an hour before Mr. Hatch was able to carry a vote.

Then followed the debate on the Kansas spoke in the interest of every business man, whether farmer, merchant or mechanic. Mr. Henderson of Iowa said the farmers wanted this legislation. He did not claim it would give the farmers the relief they expected, but it would free them of some of their trouble.

Mr. Taylor of Illinois said the farmer was an intelligent man and did not need this legislation to protect him; not 10 percent of the farmers favored the bill, and the rest would be away from the bill.

SACRAMENTO, March 1.—[Special.] The Senate today voted an appropriation to fit up the unused State building in Santa Clara county as a girls' industrial school, and when the Whittier Appropriation Bill came up an amendment was offered striking out that part referring to a girls' dormitory.

On account of the absence of the Los Angeles Senators the Whittier bill, with the amendment pending, was passed on the file. The size of the vote given for the Santa Clara school was a surprise to the Whittier advocates. It is not expected that the House will concur with the Senate in it.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Precautions Against the Introduction of Cholera Discussed.

A Proposal to Send the Health Officer to New York to Take a Special Course in Bacteriology—Routine Business.

The Board of Health held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon in the Mayor's office, beginning at 1:30 o'clock.

Mayor Rowan presided, and there were present Drs. Hitchcock, MacGowan, Gillingham and Kurtz.

A petition was received from Cussen & Cunningham stating that an unbearable stench proceeded from the basement of the Mott Market, and asking that such nuisance be abated.

Dr. Kurtz said that the stench was caused by the fermentation of sauerkraut, several barrels of which were stored in the basement referred to.

Health Officer Power said that the owner had agreed to remove the nuisance, and, on motion of Dr. Gillingham, the matter was laid over.

A report of the Health Officer in regard to a tamale factory at the corner of Sixth and San Julian streets was adopted as read.

A letter was read from the Council of Salt Lake City in which it was advocated that a combined action on the part of the cities of the Pacific Coast and adjacent territory against the danger menace from cholera was advisable, and inviting that each of the cities of upward of 10,000 population located therein should send a representative to a convention in the city of Salt Lake City.

Dr. MacGowan moved that the Health Officer be requested to attend and that the Clerk of the Board be instructed to draw a requisition for a sum sufficient to pay his necessary expenses. This was approved. A demand for $25 for brick and other work and $25 additional for an operating table for the receiving hospital was approved.

A communication from City Clerk Luckenbach in regard to a hole on the south side of Twenty-second street and near Hope street was laid over until next week.

Dr. MacGowan moved that the Health Officer be instructed to keep a record for a term of one year of all

BRINKLEY VS. HILL.

A Sensational Case on Trial Before Judge Smith.

Young Hill Charged by His Former Friend With Embezzlement.

The Story as Told by Brinkley on the Witness Stand.

His Testimony Corroborated by That of His Wife—Hill Denies All Wrongdoing in the Matter of the Money.

In Department One of the Superior Court yesterday, Claude L. Hill, a rather prepossessing young man, about 26 years of age, appeared before Judge Smith and a jury to answer to the charge of embezzlement preferred against him by Robert C. Brinkley. The prosecution was conducted by Deputy District Attorney Dupuy, the defendant being represented by M. E. C. Munday, Esq.

The jurors selected to try the case were: L. E. Boyer, J. S. Bluck, S. D. Crow, G. W. Freeman, F. Gerling, E. Graw, W. F. Hall, E. F. Hastings, R. Kincaid, E. Luke, A. E. Meigs and A. L. Whitney.

The first witness called for the prosecution was the complainant, Robert C. Brinkley, who testified to the effect that he had known the defendant for over twenty years, and that Hill had been schoolmate and chum at Memphis, Tenn. Defendant, for whom he had the money, had been living at his house on Pearl street, in this city, in February, 1891, and, at witness's request, took up his residence there. In May, 1892, witness was called away on business, and requested Hill to look after his wife and family during his absence. While he was away, witness sent his wife a remittance of $50 every two weeks with which to defray the expenses of the household. In August, 1892, while at Memphis, Tenn., witness telegraphed to Hill requesting him to have a note for $390, held by W. E. DeGroot, extended until his return, but defendant wired back that DeGroot had refused, and witness sent him the money with which to pay it. Upon his return to this city, some weeks later, witness learned to his surprise that there was still $390 due on the note; but defendant, when asked about it, assured him that he had paid it, and reiterated this statement in the presence of DeGroot. Subsequently, however, defendant admitted that he had spent the money, but claimed he had disbursed some of it for the expenses incurred by his friend's wife and children.

R. H. Haines and A. Beardslee, managers of the Pacific Postal and Western Union Telegraph companies, respectively, were called for the purpose of proving that certain telegrams were received at their offices at various times, and a recess was then declared until 2 o'clock.

Upon resuming for the afternoon session, J. C. Sherer, chief operator at the Postal Telegraph Company's office, was called upon to produce certain telegrams which passed between Hill and Brinkley, during the latter's absence, but he was unable to do so. Detective W. A. Boardman, of the police department, stated, however, that Sherer produced the telegrams at the preliminary examination in the lower court.

The complainant, Brinkley, was thereupon recalled, and in spite of the objections raised by defendant's counsel, the following message was read to him from Hill, while Hill was at Memphis, were introduced in evidence:

LOS ANGELES (Cal.) Aug. 4, 1892. Exert yourself. Wants all his money when due. Answer. CLAUDE.

LOS ANGELES (Cal.) Aug. 7, 1892. You must do something by tomorrow. What is the trouble. CLAUDE.

LOS ANGELES (Cal.) Aug. 9, 1892. Have Memphis National Bank wire Fleischman, Farmers' and Merchants' Bank. CLAUDE.

LOS ANGELES (Cal.) Aug. 10, 1892. All right. Don't put a cent on anything. All well. CLAUDE.

Upon cross-examination witness reiterated the story told by him upon direct examination, the only new fact brought out being the admission that he had received a letter from Attorney Jay E. Hunter since the case had commenced, which was produced, but not admitted by the Court in evidence.

R. H. Johnson, an attorney, testified to having overheard a conversation between Hill and Brinkley in October last with relation to a note, in which defendant stated that he had paid it, with the exception of $25.

W. E. DeGroot, president of the Pacific Loan Company, testified to the effect that Brinkley owed that corporation $890 on a note, and that on August 15 last Hill paid $90 upon it, leaving a balance of $800 due. Upon Brinkley's return from the East, witness demanded payment, and to his surprise learned that Hill claimed to have paid it in full. On the evening of October 31 last he met Hill in the presence of Brinkley, and defendant again insisted that he had paid witness the full amount due. The witness naively added: "Then there was trouble."

Next day Hill called at witness's office and apologized for his conduct of the night before, and admitted that he had lied.

Mrs. Alice Brinkley, a plump brunette, attired in black and heavily veiled, was then called to the stand and gave her testimony in a prompt and decisive manner, which left no doubt in the minds of her auditors as to the truth of her assertions. She stated, in effect, that she had known the defendant, Hill, since February, 1891, when her husband introduced him to her as an old and confidential friend. Hill, thereupon, took up his residence at their house on Pearl street. In May, 1892, her husband went away, but during his absence he regularly remitted money for household expenses. She knew that he owed $890 on a note, and learned from Hill that he had received that amount from her husband in August, and defendant stated subsequently that he had paid it. In October she went to San Francisco to meet her husband, and saw defendant there, and Brinkley returning to Los Angeles together for the purpose of squaring up the note matter. She did not know of Hill's arrest until she read of it in the San Francisco papers. Upon cross-examination, Mrs. Brinkley admitted that she had been told what to testify by Attorney Jay E. Hunter, and had also talked the matter over with a Mr. Nelson, of the German Insurance Company, but she denied emphatically that Detective Bosqui had been closed in an adjoining room to overhear the latter conversation.

She stated that Hill had been uniformly kind to her during her husband's absence, and on several occasions when the children were sick he had exerted unusual care for them. Hill handled all the money for her, and she only spent such sums as were absolutely necessary for household expenses. Sometimes he claimed to be without money, and on several occasions told her that he had pawned his private effects. She denied the insinuation that she had spent the money sent by her husband on finery and clothing for herself, with considerable vigor.

On re-direct examination witness said that at Hill's request she let him have a ring and some silverware, but did not know that he intended to pawn the articles, nor that he had done so, until she received a pawn ticket for him for these articles. The money thus obtained she believed he had used in paying his expenses to San Francisco.

H. J. Fleischman, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank, and Charles R. Lockwood, a clerk in De Groot's employ, testified to the receipt by Hill of the $390, and his failure to pay the note with the money, and the prosecution then rested its case.

The defendant, Claude L. Hill, took the stand and in his own behalf testified to the effect that he had spent the money and a good deal more of his own for the benefit of Mrs. Brinkley and the family, and the matter thereupon went over until this morning.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A Man Almost Instantly Killed by a Runaway Team.

A distressing accident occurred yesterday morning at 8:30, in which James Setright, a young married man who lived at No. 827 Montreal street, lost his life.

Mr. Setright had hitched up a pair of bronco horses to a heavy wagon used for hauling dirt. Setright, carelessly leaving the broncos for a moment, they started, through innate cussedness, to run away.

The wagon was standing in front of Setright's stable, near the corner of Alpine and Montreal streets. Setright, an agile man of fine physique, and about 35 years of age, gained the wagon as it passed him, and gathering up the lines, braced himself by sitting flat on the planks used as a bed, but his efforts were unavailing, as the horses had got well under way, and on a down grade.

Mrs. Sutton, a neighbor, who witnessed the sad accident from the beginning, said the impetus of the wagon was so great the horses could not hold it back. Upon gaining Alpine street from the stable entrance, the wheels of the wagon struck a fence, which almost wrecked it, and so entangled Setright among the reins and planks as to cause him to lose his balance a moment later, when he fell so as to be dragged some distance, finally falling in such a manner that the front end of the wagon struck him.

The horses continued their mad career down Alpine street to Philadelphia, where they turned, the wagon striking the curb and wrenching one of the wheels from it and partly demolishing the fence. A hack standing near the corner had a very close shave, the runaway just grazing it in their flight. Continuing down Philadelphia street to Bellevue avenue and on that thoroughfare to Main street, they ran into an electric railway pole and were caught by a blacksmith before further damage was done.

Several persons had seen the team start and assistance was promptly given to the injured man, but to no purpose. The wounded man was found lying doubled up on the ground and resting on his elbow. When asked if he was badly hurt he replied: "Yes, the wagon ran over me here," indicating his chest. These were his last words, as he immediately began gasping for breath and relapsed into unconsciousness, expiring a few moments later.

Dr. Thiele was sent for, and arrived but a few moments before Setright breathed his last.

A Catholic priest arrived too late to administer extreme unction the man had craved, but remained with the afflicted wife for a time.

Setright leaves his widow the home and some personal property. The funeral will be conducted under the auspices of the Foresters, of which he is a member, probably Sunday.

NEW Challies, an extra light all-wool fabric with dainty-looking figures, copied from the silk designs of France. Challies do not wrinkle. These new spring ideas with small flowers and designs came in yesterday and were eagerly picked up by those who saw them; dark and light grounds. Another new lot of Cheney Bros.' American silks in small, neat stripes and figures; the new ideas for spring; the most elegant silks for wear, equally as choice for dresses or blouse waists and largely used for dress fronts to combine with all-wool goods. Still more new ideas—Illuminated Silk Velvets; they are growing in popularity. All kinds of velvets will be largely used this season, and when the fall comes around the demand will be still larger; 1893 will be a great silk and velvet year. In that great 100 feet of Dress Goods selling room you can find the largest assortment of new ideas we ever carried. Today another new lot of Dress Goods; trade doubling up in this department. We have been studying to increase dress goods sales; we believe in showing goods freely, to give all the samples you want, to wait upon trade in a manner to inspire confidence, to truthfully represent the quality of the goods and to refund money to any who feel they are not satisfied with their purchases. This is our method and we do as we say we will; all we ask is to return the goods in a good, merchantable condition and get your money. Trefousse, Perrin Freres, Villa, Angelina, Chaumont, all first-class brands of Kid Gloves, in all sizes and in all colors, in the largest glove department in this city; they sell regularly for $2.25, $2.00 and $1.75 a pair; you may take your choice out of this lot for $1.25 a pair; it is the best kid glove bargain ever offered by any house on this Coast. You can buy arm-length opera shades in Kid Gloves that are selling all over this city for $5 and $6 a pair, and this has been our price; now, $3.00. All our kid gloves are new, fresh stock, the most desirable kid gloves in this market and the choicest bargains ever offered in kid gloves. New Cloaks, new Capes; new Jackets; selling more cloaks than any two of the largest houses in the city. All Shoes going at reduced prices; you can save from 50c to $2 a pair on your shoes; special low prices on narrow lasts.

BUSINESS.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

LOS ANGELES, March 1, 1893.
San Francisco advices report the arrival there of four carloads of oranges. The market is heavily overstocked and much of the orange stock is poor. California lemons are very scarce and prices are firm. Mexican lemons are easier.
The vegetable market is steady. Potatoes are unchanged. Choice onions continue firm and in good demand.
The butter market is weak, with heavy supplies. Store eggs are quoted at 18c. Cheese is weak.

New York Stocks.
NEW YORK, March 1.—Operations in the stock market today were reduced to the lowest ebb, a decidedly professional appearance being imparted to the dealings. Heavy buying at the opening brought everything up, but the market was not sustained. Sugar being most prominent. The bears made a vigorous raid later, however, and nearly everything was beaten down again. Sugar closed with a net loss of 1/16. Northern Pacific was strong, maintaining a net gain of 1/16 per cent at the close. Reading got up to 28, but was driven back to 26. Industrials generally show losses, excepting those of 2 1/2 per cent. The final changes in the general railroad list were mostly small.
Government bonds closed dull and steady. New York Feb. 28 money at 100. Call money at 4 1/2; closed offered at 5 per cent. PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—60 to 90 days, 4 1/2 to 5; demand, 4 1/2 to 5.

Impipes Hammock Carts!

The old idea of 40 years ago was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus all the old sarsaparillas contain potash, a nauseating ingredient, that instead of curing actually creates more eruptions. You have noticed this when taking other sarsaparillas. Now Joy's it is! It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stomach and healthy digestion purifies it and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate and satisfactory. A short testimonial to contrast the operation of the potash sarsaparillas and Joy's modern vegetable preparation. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 40 Hayes St., B. F. writes: "I have years had indigestion. I tried a popular sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently I tried it, and the pimples immediately disappeared."

LEGAL.
An Ordinance
Laying Road Poll Taxes in the County of Los Angeles, California, for the year 1893, and Providing for the Collection of the Same.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF
Los Angeles county do ordain as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby levied upon each male person over 21 years and under 65 years of age, except all persons who are honorably discharged from the army or navy of the United States at any time between the 1st day of April, in the year of 1892, and September 1st, 1892, found in each road district of this county on the date on which this ordinance shall go into effect, as hereafter provided, and on the second Monday in January, 1894, the sum of two ($2.00) dollars as a road poll tax for the current year. Said road poll tax shall be collected by the county assessor in the same manner that state poll taxes are collected, and all remedies given by law for the collection of State poll taxes shall be in full force for the collection of road poll taxes. Provided, that if the same shall not be paid on or before the first Monday of July, 1893, the sum of three ($3.00) dollars shall be collected by the assessor.

Sec. 2. Copies of this ordinance shall be posted in at least five public places in each road district on or before the first day of March 1893.

Sec. 3. This ordinance shall go into effect and operation upon the 15th day of March, 1893, and shall prior to that date be published for one week in the LOS ANGELES TIMES, a newspaper published in said county, together with the names of the members of this board voting for and against the same.

Sec. 4. All ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

J. W. COOK,
Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles County, California.

RAILROAD AFFAIRS.

The New San Pedro Transportation Company.

It Will Probably Be Operated in Connection With the Terminal.

Grading on the Soldiers' Home Branch Commenced.

The Road to Be Completed by the 24th
Inst.—The Santa Monica Hotel
Deal—Prominent Railroad
Visitors from the East.

From present indications it is highly probable that some marked changes in transportation and shipping rates will be effected at the port of San Pedro before many days, which will be of benefit, not only to the traveling public, but to all those who have occasion to receive or deliver merchandise to the sea carriers. The San Pedro Transportation Company is the name of a corporation recently organized with Los Angeles capital. As yet no names of those interested have been made public except that of Capt. A. B.
Smith, who will occupy the position of general manager, but the enterprise is, notwithstanding, an assured fact. The purpose of the new company is to do a general shipping business. Two large tugs have been purchased,
together with six lighters, with which to begin business, part of the equipment having already been received. The first of the tugs, the Sea Witch, arrived from San Francisco yesterday, and will be ready to go into service in a few days. Capt. Smith, in outlining the proposed work of his company, said that it was their purpose to do first-class ship work, towing, lighting, etc., at rates far below the prices now charged.

Since the news had been made public, he said, of the formation of the new company, numerous telegrams had been received from San Francisco inquiring whether or not the tugs were ready to go to work.

"Will you embrace Catalina as a terminal point in your passenger service?"
asked the reporter.

"Yes, sir; within two or three weeks
we will be in shape to inaugurate regular trips to the island at a very much reduced rate of fare in conjunction with the San Diego steamer line, which,
however, is governed by an entirely separate company."

"Have we wharfage at San Pedro?" Oh, yes, we have absolute control of sufficient water front for the present,
and will soon be ready to build our own wharf. About the members of the company? Well, all we can say is that the capital invested is all from this city,
and represented by well-known parties
who mean business."

From the fact that the Terminal Railroad is doing the business for the present San Diego line, it is believed that company is behind the new enterprise,
and is furnishing the capital, or at least
its stockholders are.

GRADING COMMENCED.
The work of grading on the Soldiers'
Home branch of the Southern Pacific
Santa Monica line was commenced Tuesday. It is expected that this branch will be entirely completed by March 24, and opened for travel on that date with an excursion to the home by visitors to the G.A.R. encampment.

THAT SANTA MONICA HOTEL.
The presence of several leading Southern Pacific officials in this city has again given rise to the rumor that the railroad company, with the completion of their new wharf at Santa Monica, intended to build a second Del Monte and establish at that place an all-the-year-around health resort.
Many weeks ago The Times gave an outline of the reports as they were made public at the time. During the past few days the rumors have again been revived, but nothing definite as to the company's moves in the hotel line is yet apparent. There seems every probability that the Southern Pacific has decided upon Santa Monica as a Southern California ocean terminus.
Although Messrs. Mills and Huntington disclaim any knowledge of a present or prospective deal looking toward the establishment of a hotel at Santa Monica, they do not deny that such a plan may be under consideration.

SCRAP HEAP.
Clinton Jones, general agent of the Rock Island route at San Francisco, is in the city.

A new wharf is being built on Terminal Island by the Ganshi Lumber Company.

The steamer Tillamook sailed yesterday morning for San Diego with eighty-six passengers on board.

The Fresno and Monterey Railway Company has recently been authorized to build a line of road to Monterey.

Quite a number of tourists took passage for the East on the Judson excursion, which left yesterday morning.

John Sebastian, general ticket and passenger agent of the Rock Island, is also among the recent visitors. His private car will be attached to the express which goes north this afternoon.

The new First-street depot of the Santa Fé will be ready for occupancy on May 1. The enclosing walls of the whole building are now nearly all up,
and the baggage-room roof about completed.

A party consisting of S. H. Babcock, general freight agent of the Rio Grande Western; C. D. Dodge, general manager of the same road; G. W. Kramer, manager of the Denver and Rio Grande Express Company; Mrs. A. E. Oatman of Byrnes, N. Y.; Mrs. J. W. Dean of Denver, and Mrs. C. D. Dodge, arrived yesterday in a private car from the East. Messrs. Kramer and Dodge took a whirl around the Kite-shaped track

during the afternoon, and will leave this morning for Santa Barbara, to attend the transcontinental ticket and freight association agents' meeting.

In Arizona several railway building propositions are being agitated, and as a result it has been decided to extend the Rio Grande Southern from Phoenix to Benson, where it will cross the border and go to Guaymas on the Gulf of California, and also to extend the Santa Fé, Prescott and Phoenix road, to Prescott and from Atchison to Ash Fork.

THE RAPE FIEND.

Jose Garcia Held to Answer for His Crime.

The preliminary examination of José
Garcia, the rape fiend, was held yesterday before Justice Austin, resulting in Garcia being held in $2000 bond to answer to the crime as charged.

Terica Casulla, the girl assaulted,
was placed upon the witness stand,
when she identified the prisoner as the same who assaulted her, after which she retold her original story, relating everything that happened from the time she started for the cow at her mother's request until she reached her home after the assault, bruised, her clothing torn and almost hysterical from her scare and exhaustion in fighting the brute in his attempt to criminally assault her.

Terica is a bright little maid, and,
while not handsome, is very attractive,
owing to her sparkling bright eyes and intellectual appearance. She told her story in a quiet, unostentatious manner,
and was as graceful in her manner as she was earnest in giving her evidence.

The girl's brother and the young milkman, George Gerich, who chased the villain over the hills, identified the prisoner, the coat and hat produced in court as the one Garcia abandoned on the battlefield, and reiterated their former stories, which were quietly told in a straightforward, but—although unintentional with them—graphic manner.

Garcia offered no evidence—made no statement whatever. The fellow presented the same stolid indifference throughout the examination that he has assumed ever since his arrest. Not a muscle changed in his face, and no movement was made by the prisoner to indicate a care for what was going on around him, and he left the courtroom
for the County Jail as he came to it and appeared within the prisoner's dock, apparently perfectly oblivious of his surroundings.

"ROOM AT CORONADO."
To contract an erroneous report that the "Hotel del Coronado" is full and that arrivals had been unable to secure rooms,
I wish to state that such is not the case;
there are still quite a number of good rooms vacant, and all applying can depend upon securing first-class accommodations.

Today the great championship wrestling match between Evan Lewis, the famous stranger, and Ernst Roerber
will take place at New Orleans.

Lewis won his soubriquet by a peculiar hold introduced by him in wrestling, which, when gained, meant defeat for his opponent. The hold was first used on Sotakichi, the Jap, at Madison, Wis.
Roerber is a clever wrestler of the
